Shakespeare Apartments located in Logan Square is a beautifully maintained, affordable residential apartment building a few blocks away from the California stop on the Blue Line. Logan Square boasts one of the grandest intersections in Chicago—The Square—which is set around an enormous marble column celebrating the centennial of Illinois statehood. Living at Shakespeare Apartments, you are close to historic downtown Chicago, various shopping districts, and fine dining. Living here, you'll be in the center of all that is downtown Chicago.
